

Creating vibrant, healthy and enduring rural communities

Financing available to Tribes, Tribal entities and individuals in the Southwest

Rural Community Assistance Corporation is a nonprofit organization that provides training, technical and financial resources and advocacy so rural and Tribal communities can achieve their goals and visions. RCAC is a certified Community Development Financial Institution and ensures that rural and Tribal communities have access to affordable capital, including gap financing, for community development projects.

We're contacting you today because we want to introduce you to a new opportunity to access capital. Our Loan Fund has received funding that is specifically intended to provide low-interest, long- and short-term loans to Tribes, Tribal communities and individual Native Americans in Arizona and New Mexico.

Eligible projects include: affordable housing, infrastructure (water and wastewater system improvements), community facilities and Native-owned small businesses.

Eligible entities: nonprofit agencies that serve Indian Country, Tribal entities and individuals.

Our team is easy to work with and provides quick turnaround on applications. Our loans can be tailored to fit your specific needs. Give us a call for an informal discussion about your project. Our rates and terms are very competitive but vary by program. See the attached rate sheet for details.

If you have questions or would like more details, don't hesitate to contact our loan officer:

Darryl English (435) 640-9770, or denglish@rcac.org. Or, call RCAC's main office at (916) 447-9832 and ask for Loan Fund.
